

I have personally experienced the talked about interference from BPL here in North Carolina. It is from one of the deployments of it in the Fuquay-Varina area. The interference from BPL spanned the complete 10 meter amateur radio band from 28.00Mhz up through 30Mhz. It also interfered with 24Mhz. If this is deployed as is it will create a huge interference problem.

Regards,

Ron Spencer
N4XD